Janet's Junk

Here it is, the end of August, and we only have 4 more months and Christmas will be here! This year has just flown by. I hope everyone is staying cool. Staying in gives us a little extra time for quilting and getting our quilts together for the show in March. Also start thinking of things we can make and donate for the Boutique at the show. Have a great September!! Hugs from Janet!!

Minutes of the August 2018 Meeting

On August 7, 2018, President Janet Ferguson called the meeting to order and welcomed the members of the Shiner Heritage Quilters. There were 31 Members and three guests, Diane Smith, Lisa Whitmire, and Robin White, present.

The Guild members recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

August hostesses, Dee Heberle and Annette Meyer, were thanked. The hostesses for September are Nola Bohuslav, Alice Janak, and Bernadette Kresta.

Janet Ferguson asked if there were any corrections to the July minutes. No corrections were noted. Dee Heberle motioned the minutes stand, and Annette Meyer seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously. The treasurer's report was given by Rae Nell Janik. The treasurer's report was accepted and filed for audit.

Janet Ferguson thanked Debbie Baker for bringing the Cuero Quilt Guild's raffle quilt to the meeting. The Yoakum Pink Ladies also displayed their raffle quilt.

Toni Rodgers presented Food for Thought. August birthdays were recognized: Karen Hermes, Nancy McNease, and Gladys Mulehstein. In Sunshine and Shadows, Kathleen Schacherl's oldest daughter is finished with cancer treatments. Theresa Belicek had need surgery, and Rose Mary Havlik's husband had a hip replacement, and both are recovering well. Carolyn Janak's grandson will graduate from Texas A&M University this month.

Janet Ferguson welcomed guest Diane Smith to speak about Three Oaks Retreat Center in Yoakum. Diane gave members information about the wonderful new retreat center.

Annette Meyer presented a program on binding quilts. She suggested cutting striped fabric different ways to give the binding different looks. She reminded quilters about many wonderful binding cutting, sewing, and finishing tips.

Janet Ferguson told members about the Calhoun County Quilt Show in February 2019. Members were also told about the Sue Garmon Quilt Exhibit at the La Grange Quilt Museum.

In Committee Reports, Publicity Chair Irene Cerny stated the bookmarks for the upcoming Quilt Show are available and gave them out to members. Bernadette Kresta stated she has 18 kits available for Nursing Home quilts. She also said there will be a standing sew day the Monday before each monthly meeting at the Church. Meagan Campion thanked members for all of the CPS quilts brought to the meeting. She told members she will have a total count at the next meeting. Kathy Riske stated the Donation Quilt was taken to Victoria, and she asked members to volunteer to take the quilt to other Guilds in the area. She stated more raffle tickets are available. Kathy said we need boutique items and quilts entered into the show. She will have entry forms ready soon. Wanda Myers gave the next set of instructions of the 2018 Block of the Month Quilt. Members displayed their progress. Mary Shafer stated all seven Youth Quilting students finished their quilts during the week. She thanked all volunteers.

In Old Business, Janet Ferguson reminded members about the Guild bus trip to the Austin Quilt Show. RaeNell Janik stated 14 people have signed up.

In New Business, Janet Ferguson and RaeNell Janik spoke about the ads for the Quilt Show booklet. There was a discussion about ad prices. Wanda asked how our prices compare to prices for other advertising. Meagan Campion stated that the prices are in line with the advertising she for which she pays for her business. RaeNell was asked about the money we receive from the sale of the ads and the cost of printing the booklet. She gave the information to the members. Bernadette Kresta motioned to keep the ad prices at last show's rate. Dee Heberle seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

Show and Tell projects were displayed by Kathy Riske, Betty Kleosel, Wanda Myers, Jean Bochat, Carolyn Janik, Janet Ferguson, Irene Cerny, Joyce Machicek, Annie Havel, and Karen Hoermann.

Janet Ferguson reminded members that the annual Membership Drive is next month. Dues are $15 per person per year.

Door Prizes were won by Meagan Campion, Kathy Riske, Sherrie Holland, Kathleen Schacherl, Wanda Myers, Janet Ferguson, and Betty Kloesel.

The meeting was adjourned by Janet Ferguson.
