Janet's Junk

Well, Spring is here! Time to get busy again. We are excited that we have planned a new Block of the Month program that we hope everyone will enjoy!! I am excited about it, and you will get more information at the next meeting. Also, remember we have a speaker- Doris Rice - and this should be a great learning experience. For those who have not signed up yet for the workshop on May 11, please let Meagan know you would like to attend ASAP so we can get you on the list. We need more people to have the workshop, so please think about it. Again, thanks for all the hard work on the show, it was a HUGE success. It takes help and people working to make a quilt show great and from the feedback everyone was impressed! GREAT JOB everyone!!!

Minutes of the April 2019 Meeting

On April 2, 2019, President Janet Ferguson called the meeting to order and welcomed the members of the Shiner Heritage Quilters. There were 31 members and 9 guests present.

The Guild members recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

Janet Ferguson asked if there were any corrections to the March minutes. Dee Heberle motioned the minutes be accepted as presented, and Nola Bohuslav seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously. The treasurer's report was given by Rae Nell Janik. Annette Meyer motioned the report be accepted as read, and Dee Heberle seconded. The motion passed unanimously. The treasurer's report was accepted and filed for audit.

The April hostesses were thanked.

Toni Rodgers presented Food for Thought. April birthdays were recognized, and members shared Sunshine and Shadows.

Margaret Atkins and Rhonda Gersch discussed the history and beauty of barn quilts. They explained the techniques used to make barn quilts, and they told the story of how they built the Winchester Barn Quilt Trail.

Door prizes were won by Janet Zabransky, Marilyn Schroeder, Toni Rodgers, Suzanne Sestak, Bernadette Kresta, Janet Ferguson, Wanda Myers, Betty Maskey, and Carolyn Whitmire.

In Committee Reports, Janet Ferguson thanked everyone for a successful quilt show. Rae Nell Janik gave a report on the final quilt show income and expenses. Kathy Riske reported on the number of entries and visitors. Annette Meyer thanked everyone for their entries. Dee Heberle spoke of the challenge blocks. Wanda Myers reminded everyone of the May program and workshop. A discussion of the donation to the church was tabled to the next meeting.

There was no old business.

In new business, Irene Cerny updated members about our 2019 Youth Quilting program to be held in July. Kathy Riske is heading the nomination committee for new Guild officers.

Show and Tell projects were displayed by Nola Bohuslav and Bernadette Kresta.

The meeting was adjourned by Janet Ferguson.
